

DIRECTIONS TO THE MALHEUR FIELD STATION AND AREA MAP

The Malheur Field Station (MFS) is located on the northern end of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge in southeastern Oregon.

To reach MFS from the west, take route 78 east (signed to Winnemucca, NV) out of Burns, Oregon. Shortly after leaving town look for a right hand turn onto Highway 205 (signed to Frenchglen). Travel south on Highway 205 for just over 23 miles, then turn left (east) just before mile marker 24, onto Sodhouse Lane. Proceed three miles and turn right (south) onto a gravel road at the MFS sign and mailbox. The Field Station is situated between two buttes about 1.3 miles down this road.
